

4- Day PICHI RICHI RAILWAY

Departing Friday 14th Monday 17th September 2018

All-inclusive price is $850.00pp and $150.00ss

Join us for this adventure back in time when the South Australian Railways were in their heyday. We'll enjoy country hospitality and a one-way journey on the "Afghan Express" to Quorn. Once in Quorn we'll be treated to a tour of the workshop facilities by one of the volunteers. Following the tour we'll chase the train home for photo opportunities.

This tour is all-inclusive staying in great country motels with fantastic meals and all entrances to the sights included in true Victor Tours fashion. Bookings close 17th June

Day 1 – Friday 14th Sept – After pickups we'll be on our way north stopping along the way for comfort stops and enjoying the sights of the mid north of SA. We'll have a stop in Kadina for lunch before heading off to Port Germaine before arriving in Port Augusta at our night's accommodation.

Acacia Ridge Motel Port Augusta (Breakfast and Dinner in the motel, lunch own expense)

Day 2 – Saturday 15th Sept – After a hearty breakfast this morning we'll transfer down to the Port Augusta Railway Station to follow the Afghan Express to Quorn. We'll stop along the way to get some great photos of the train passing over crossings and bridges before arriving in Quorn. Once in Quorn we'll have time to visit the Visitors Centre at the railway station and grab some lunch at one of the many cafes. After lunch we'll then board the train for the return journey back to Port Augusta. The journey follows the old line to Port Augusta and is filled with nostalgia. We'll then reboard the coach at the Port Augusta station and return to the motel for dinner.

Acacia Ridge Motel Port Augusta (Breakfast and Dinner in the motel, lunch own expense)

Day 3 – Sunday 16th Sept – It will be a leisurely start today as we'll be heading back down the highway to Peterborough stopping along the way for lunch in Melrose. There will be time to have a wander around the shops before going to a spectacular look out near Horricks Pass to Peterborough for our night's accommodation and a very delicious meal. (as an OPTIONAL EXTRA you can do the Sound n Light show at the Railway Roundhouse for $20)

Roundhouse Motel Peterborough (Breakfast and dinner in motel)

Day 4 – Monday 17th Sept – This morning we'll do a guided town tour of Burra to hear about the rich mining heritage and how the people of Burra contributed to the social value of South Australia in the early days. Following our town tour we'll head toward home but not before stopping for a hearty lunch to see us through the rest of the day.

*Home pickups are dependant upon taxi availability and geographic location from within 20km radius of Victor Tours office.
